Tandus Centiva Gives Back to Local Community

People with Purpose

Dalton, GA (November 17, 2015) – Tandus Centiva, a Tarkett company, provides the opportunity for its Dalton, GA employees to demonstrate the company's commitment to supporting community organizations and causes. As part of their first annual Day of Service, Tandus Centiva partnered with United Way and employees installed ethos® Modular carpet at the local Salvation Army, Whitfield Dalton Day Care, Cohutta Elementary School and Oak Haven Second Chance Home. Tandus Centiva ethos is a time-tested flooring solution that is perfect for education facilities, corporate offices and public spaces. It is a high performance modular carpet tile made from PVB, a recycled film polymer which is found in windshields and safety glass.

"Tandus Centiva strives to be a positive force in our local communities," states Erin Istanbuluoglu, Director of Environmental & Social Stewardship for Tandus Centiva. "United in our team efforts, we are thankful to provide a time-tested, high performance, sustainable flooring solution for these facilities."
