Aegean Series

POWERBOND/MODULAR

Inspiration from the Mediterranean countryside.

We live in a rich time marked by the fusion of diverse cultures, lifestyles and experiences. A time of embracing the unfamiliar as an opportunity for true progress. As we grow and change from exposure to these new perspectives, we undergo a remarkable transformation. It's more than a simple blending of cultures. It's the creation of something entirely new. A Neoculture.

Recarving
the societal landscape.

The influence of modern art on Neoculture.

Every five years, artists from around the world gather in Kassel, Germany to display works of modern art that interpret the realities of civilization and often shape the cultural and artistic agenda to come. The event is documenta, a tradition begun in 1955 by professor and designer Arnold Bode. The most recent documenta was hosted in both Kassel and Athens, Greece, where our design team was enlightened both by the works displayed during the 100-day exhibition, and the breathtaking Mediterranean landscape. A culmination of three of our greatest inspirations—art, architecture and nature—came together in one glorious display of the human experience. And the inspiration for a new series was born.

Soothing color, plush texture.

Gaining inspiration from Greece's breathtaking vistas and slow-paced, restful culture, the Aegean Series' color palette is informed by the neutral shades of white sandy beaches, stretching mountains, cobblestone streets and ancient stone columns. Rich, saturated tones mimic crystal sky, aqua sea, Mediterranean islands and terracotta rooftops. Using a four-ply yarn blend, Andros and Hydra have an inviting texture that you can both see and feel. By combining two dark yarn strands with one accent color and one white strand, this four-ply yarn carries visual dimension and tactile softness.

9" x 36" Vertical ashlar installation with tile inset

This mid-scale pattern is reminiscent of the many ancient stone structures throughout Greece, and the way the light hits the side of the mountains in the morning, casting shadows across their surface. Andros features a layered texture that piles slightly higher than Hydra and Input, building even greater interest when they're arranged together in the floor design.

Hydra

Hydra's small-scale heather provides a textural contrast to the fuller Andros. Its coordinating neutral color palette also includes vivid brights to provide greater opportunity for color contrast and interesting way-finding. With a more affordable price point, Hydra can be placed on its own in private offices and conference rooms, or used in collaboration with Andros to create installed pattern options that can lower overall budgets.

Input

Designed by world renowned designer Suzanne Tick, Input brings a soft linear pattern to the Aegean Series, like the striations chiseled into Greek mountainsides by the wind. Use this coordinating palette with Andros and Hydra to create energetic tile designs, or on its own in softer, more contemplative spaces.

ethos® Modular + Omnicoat Technology™

Overcome what lies beneath.

Don't lose time and money on challenging substrate issues—ethos® Modular with Omnicoat Technology™ eliminates installation problems before they happen. Its breakthrough, proprietary coating creates a chemical barrier that works on any adverse flooring substrate—from green and chemically abated concrete to old adhesives. And as long as there's no evidence of standing liquids or staining, ethos eliminates the need for moisture, pH and MVER testing when installed with TarkettTAPE™.

ReStart® includes Tarkett's third-party certified reclamation and recycling program that reclaims and recycles postconsumer flooring, installation waste, samples and portfolios. To initiate ReStart, contact customer service at 800.248.2878.
